

Private

Boston, March 22, 1865 =

Wm. L. Garrison -

54 Dear Sir - would not the purposes of truth and history be better served ~~only~~ always using the words
"Conspiracy" and "Conspiritors" instead of "rebellion" and "rebels" - in speaking & writing ^{of this war} - The New York En's Post has made the change and it seems to me very desirable that it should be general and the Newspapers and Editors can do it - Hoping you will banish ~~the~~ the comparatively honorable words rebel & rebellion from your columns, if ~~it~~ it meet your views - I beg leave to remain with the highest respect and admiration Yours Ob. S^t E. Hunt.

